

Customs Bond Requirements

With few exceptions, Customs Regulations require all shipments to be bonded. A single transaction bond (STB) on CF 301 can be submitted with each entry to satisfy this requirement for a smaller or infrequent importer. For frequent importers, a continuous bond is preferable and less expensive. If you want more information on this service, please click on the "Contact Us" icon on our home page.